Larchmere FLEA MARKET & Festival! Saturday, June 28, 2008, 11am-5pm

An Invitation

Dear Business Owner,

You are cordially invited to join us for our second Larchmere Flea Market and Festival on Saturday, June 28th. The Larchmere merchants, together with our neighboring residents, dealer and vendor friends, are hosting one gigantic Festival. With plenty of vendors, there will be a huge variety of antique, vintage and useful things available for sale, with entertainment to boot! Imagine part Burton Flea Market, part Portobello Road Antiques Market, with a dash of Ingenuity. Music and food will be available also, all along the real-life neighborhood of Larchmere bordering Cleveland and Shaker Heights. From junk to jewels and kitsch to collectible, join the Larchmere Flea Market for an excellent sales opportunity.

The Larchmere Flea Market and Festival was a huge popular success in 2007. Here are some reminders about how it works.

- The street will not be closed to traffic.
- More the merrier is the mantra, and in terms of merchandise, anything goes.
- The tradition of arts and antiques on Larchmere is long held and expected, so please do bring your best collectibles. Antiques vendors will be grouped together.
- The Larchmere Community Association is invited to sell their treasures at a designated lot, bringing a hometown feel to the event, and increasing customers.
- There will also be an area for non-profit, green and community organizations.
- The Euclid Beach Rocket Car adds to the merriment of the event.
- The vendor's fee has is a mere $25 for a 10' x 10' space. You may, of course, buy multiple spaces. Discounts may apply for 6+ adjacent spaces (please call).

We're very excited about our second year for this event. We hope you will join us. Please find enclosed a standard contract, due June 1st. Thanks very much!

Sincerely,

Harriett
